

Do Not Store Up For Yourselves Treasures On Earth

paraphrase of Matthew 6 and music by Charles Rus

rather slow, freely

Do not store up for your - selves___ treas - ures on earth
Have no con - cern for your - selves___ for food and drink
Don't waste your time with the thoughts of your wor - ried mind

where moth and rust des - troy, but store up for your - selves treas - ures in heav'n or what clothes you should wear, for is life not much more than food and clothes?
or things not yet in sight, but seek af - ter your God and what is right.

where moth and rust do not___ des - troy where thieves can - not break in and steal.
Your heav'n - ly fa - ther feeds___ the birds - are you not worth much more than they?
To - mor - row will take care of it - self; to - day is all you have to live.

For where - ev - er your trea - sure is there will be your heart al - so.
